On arriving here Murray placed his wife in comfortable quarters and started for his home in Virginia to visit his parents. During absence the youthful wife renewed the acquaintance formed on the steamer, and began living with him, in all respects, on intimate terms. On Murray's

THE BREACH WIDENING

LORD HARTINGTON'S LETTER DIS-AVOWING MR. GLADSTONE.

Declarations from the Liberal Rank—Delighted (and not a little surprised) at the Which way the Game Kite will Jump—A Month's edition.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—The publication of Lord Hartington's letter disavowing Mr.
Gladstone's scheme of Home Rule for Ireland has greatly widened the breach in the Liberal party. There are plain indications of many defections from the Liberal ranks as to the Irish question since Mr.
Gladstone's material modification of the views he has now supposed to hold. The Tories are delighted and already proclaiming that a coalition with the Whigs is on the point of being consummated. If Lord Hartington's letter should alone the Tory confidence would be premature, but it is now known that even the sentiments of many influential Whigs bade him.

Before Lord Hartington's letter was sent to the cable news office for publication it was shown to Mr. George A. Goschen, who was slated for chancellor of the exchequer in Gladstone's next cabinet, to examine Secretary of the Treasury, and to ex-Ambassador General Sir Henry James. All these gentlemen approved the letter, and they are already convinced that the Tories as recruits to the Liberal cause.
The approval of Sir William Vernon Harcourt has occasioned general surprise. His recent utterances, although not in the least guarded language, have seemed to commit him to Mr. Gladstone's scheme. It is now supposed that the notorious loathing of everything Irish over which his belated pre-sidence and influence him for once to make a move before going down which way this war would jump.

The correspondent called upon the Right Hon. James Lowther, who was Lord Harcourt's chief secretary for Ireland, and who has been re-elected to the house of commons from Lincolnshire. Mr. Lowther was found to be positively bubbling with rage over the idea of granting Home Rule to Ireland on anything like Parnell's terms. He however declined to unbosom himself as to the terms which he would be willing to grant until he had consulted the other leaders of his party.

Mr. Samuel Storey, the Radical editor who was in the last parliament, was interviewed and said he was prepared to concur in full the demands of the Parnellites, as he understood them. But he said, Ireland must tear her own proportion of the national debt.
He thought that a written constitution would obviate much of the difficulty which has been in the way of giving Ireland a separate sanctuary.

The leaders of the Salvation army will present to Home Secretary Richard Assheton Cross, a gigantic petition for the release of Edward S. of the Fall Mall Gazette, and Mrs. Rebecca Jarrett, from the prison where they are serving three and a half years, respectively, for abducting Eliza Ann strong. The petition is a mile and a half long, contains 99,000 signatures and weighs 400 pounds. It has already been signed by more than 100,000 persons. It will be presented in person till January 19, and Mrs. Jarrett until April 19, 1884.

Forged Bank Notes.
DUBLIN, Dec. 23.—Forged bank notes of the denomination of £100, one of the banks of this city whose name at present cannot be learned, have been circulated largely during several days past in this and other cities of the United Kingdom. The counterfeit is almost an exact counterpart of the genuine one, and has experts on detect the difference. The bank officials are moving to have the notes seized and the plates from which the notes were printed or the cause of the production.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—Lieut. Greely pictured before the Royal Society. The Marquis of Lorne presided. Among those present were Francis Louisa, Mr. Parnell and wife, and C. P. Lucas. The Marquis of Lorne said Greely was a proud of Greely as if he had started from London. The lecture was enthusiastically received.

A Plaid Captured.
LONDON, Dec. 23.—A man named Harrison, carrying a "kerry" stick, taken down business in this city, who fled from a man some time ago to escape the consequences of a number of robberies perpetrated by him, has been arrested in Spain and will be brought back.

Penal Servitude.
COAK, Dec. 23.—The trial of Casey and Daly for the murder of David Charles Metcalfe Nov. 13, has been concluded.
Both prisoners were convicted and sentenced to fourteen years penal servitude.

he has fully recovered the four Newark patients and that they are doing well.

AN IMPROMPTU DUEL.
Fighting for Powder—Isot and Fucker.
Katie—He and Fucker.

PETERSBURG, Va., Dec. 23.—News has been received here through a private source of an impromptu duel which was fought near Jackson, the county seats of Northhampton county, North Carolina, between Edwin Goode and William Wheeler, two men who stand high in that county.

Some days ago Goode's cattle got into Wheeler's field and ate between one hundred and two hundred pounds of fodder.
Wheeler asked Goode to pay him for his loss. Goode refused, and this led to the difficulty. The two men took place on a country road, where it is alleged Wheeler challenged Goode to fight.
The weapons used were a pistol and pocketknife. Both men showed great pluck and it was not until Goode had received two balls from Wheeler's pistol and Wheeler seven or eight shots or cuts from Goode's knife that the encounter ended. Both men will die of their wounds, and it is reported that Goode is already dead.

Ohio & Mississippi.
BALTIMORE, Dec. 23.—A meeting of the holders of the Springfield division bonds of the Ohio & Mississippi Railroad Company was held here to consider a proposition of the company to compromise all questions relating to the bonds of the company of $5 per cent bonds secured by mortgage upon the main line. The proposition was unanimously rejected and meeting adjourned.
